Headline:
Fine and dry on Monday. Murky and damp overnight.

Today:
A fine and dry day with plenty of sunny spells. Cloud will increase from the west during the afternoon but it'll remain bright, with perhaps the odd shower over the Pennines. Feeling milder than Sunday, with some light winds. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain and drizzle will move in during the night, along with low cloud and areas of hill fog. A murky and damp end to the night. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cloudy morning with patchy light rain and drizzle. Drier and brighter in the afternoon, with developing sunny spells, but becoming breezy, particularly along coastal areas. Milder than Monday. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry and bright on Wednesday, occasionally sunny. Cloudy with early rain on Thursday, occasionally breezy. Largely cloudy on Friday, with extensive low cloud, hill fog and drizzle. Rather cold.
